Program Report

MALABAR COLLEGE OF ADVANCED STUDIES, VENGARA

'JALASHAYAM'

Three Day State Level Workshop on Conservation of Wetland Biodiversity on 07, 08,09th February 2019.

JALASHAYAM- Three day state level workshop on conservation of wet land biodiversity was organized by BOOMITHRA SENA, Malabar College of Advanced Studies, Vengara for the purpose of making awareness among students regarding wetland and need for protection of biodiversity in wet land. The program was sponsored by the Directorate of Environment and Climate Change, Government of Kerala.

Following the sanctioning of the program, measures were taken to spread information to various colleges and schools where BOOMITRASENA operates. Broachers and posters were printed two week before and circulated in various Whats App groups, face book and other electronic media. Registration was done through online and by calling co-coordinators of different colleges over phone. More than seventy participants were registered for the program.

The first session was started on 07.02.2019 at 10.am with a prayer by college choir. The welcome address of the session was done by Mr. Shabeer Thiruvakalathil, Assistant Professor, Malabar College of Advanced Studies, Vengara and the session was chaired by Mr. Noushad KK, Assistant Professor, Malabar College of Advanced Studies, Vengara. The key note speaker of the session was Mr. Jahfar Palot. The topic of the discussion was wet land and conservation of wet land biodiversity. He started his class with an introduction of wet lands, different types of wet lands and relevance of wet land on ecological system. He talked about different types of frogs, fish, coral, and other living things in wet land. Three hours of his class was very effective to participants. During the interactive session doubts were asked by participants about wet land frogs and fish.

On the same day after noon the second session was welcomed by Mr. Abdulbari. C, Assistant Professor, Malabar College of Advanced Studies, Vengara, and presided over by Mr. Nammer. M, Assistant Professor, Malabar College of Advanced Studies, Vengara.

The key note speaker of the session was Sri. C.R. Neelakantan. His topic of discussion was “Water literacy and its relevance in present society”. He started his speech by a beautiful anecdote about saving water and proceeded with elaborating unscientific way of construction of dam and canals and how these destroy the flora and fauna of wet land biodiversity. His narration about Mayilamma and her struggle for protection of ground water was heart touching. He inspired participants by giving practical examples of water utilization and protection modals. During discussion, the participants asked about his personal experience and hardships he faced in the journey of protecting environment.

On 08/02/2019 morning the third session was welcomed by Mr. Noushad K.K, Assistant Professor, Malabar College of Advanced Studies, Vengara and chaired by Mrs. Nawal Muhammed PK, Assistant Professor, Malabar College of Advanced Studies, Vengara. The Key note speaker of the day was Mr. Hamid Ali Vazakkad and the topic was “western ghats and rivers of K8erala”. His presentation was like a journey from the beginning till the end of western ghats, started from Gujarat till the end at Tiruvananthapuram district of Kerala. He talked about Manjeswaram River, Valappattanam River, Chaliyar Rivar, kadalundi rivar and bharathapuzha. The pollution of Chaliyar and public protest against it was marvelously explained during the session. All the three hours of the session was very active, dynamic, informative and inspiring. The participants were fully involved in the session and the discussion.

The official inauguration of the three day workshop was conducted on the afternoon of 08/02/2019. Mr. Aburahiman karuthedath, Coordinator, Boomithrasena, Malabar College of Advanced Studies, Vengara welcomed and Dr. U Saidalvi, Principal, chaired over the function. Adv. KNA Kadar MLA, delivered the inaugural address and Mr. Saidu Pullani, Member, District Panchayath, Malappuram, Mr. Mansoor Thangal, Chairman, College Management Committee, Mr. Abdul Majeed M, Manager of the College and Mr. Salahudheen, Union Chairman offered felicitation.

The fourth session was held in the morning of 09.02.2019. Mr. Shafeeq KP. Assistant Professor, welcomed and Mr. Firose KC, Assistant Professor, chaired the session. Dr. Kishore Kumar, Assistant Professor of Botany, Farook College, Kozhikode was the resource person. His topic was “importance of mangroves and conservation of mangroves ecosystem. He discussed in detail
